

FIFTY-POUND GOBBLER

President-Elect Taft Gets a Fine One From Oklahoma.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HOT SPRINGS, VA., November 28.—Mr. Taft's only political caller to-day was Senator William Warner, of Missouri. He delivered the nomination speech in the city today. He dropped off at Hot Springs on his way to Washington to-day just to shake the hand of the President-elect. Senator Warner said the Republicans out in his part of the country were behind Mr. Taft in the revision of the tariff honest and thorough.

State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff and his wife, Herbert Parsons and his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Sheldahl, of New York, were guests at dinner at the Taft cottage to-night. To-morrow the New York State chairman will have a conference with the President-elect on the New York State situation, including the election of a Senator.

Politicians here believe that the State chairman will make his next "renunciation" soon after his return to the Empire State.

Emmett Scott, Booker T. Washington's secretary, was here to call at the Taft cottage to-day. He wanted Mr. Taft to speak at a meeting in New York in the interest of Tuskegee Institute about the middle of February. Mr. Taft promised to think it over.

The President-elect received to-day a fifty-pound gobbler from Oklahoma. It was intended as a Thanksgiving present, but missed connections. However, the President-elect refuses to hold that up against the bird, and it will be served later.

TWO PRESIDENTS

Will Visit Obscure Kentucky Town Within Next Several Months.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LOUISVILLE, KY., November 28.—Thomas B. Kirkpatrick, postmaster at Hodgenville, the county seat of Jefferson county, in which Abraham Lincoln was born, said to-day, with reference to the visit of the President-elect to the laying of the corner-stone of the Lincoln birthplace improvements, on February 12th, and that of President-Elect Taft in May.

"Hodgenville will be honored with the presence of two Presidents within the next seven months, and thereafter at least every seven months, as I am certain the highest officers in America, Richard Lloy Jones, in a recent convention, announced that Mr. Taft had declared himself as favoring the plan for a presidential visit to the historic ground at least once each term."

Mr. Jones said the President-elect announced that he would establish the precedent by his visit in May, and that it would be followed upon future Chief Magistrate visits to the Lincoln farm.

The new $200,000 museum which will be erected on the site of the birthplace as rapidly as the weather will permit after the corner-stone is laid on February 12th. The largest crowd ever assembled in large outdoor grounds at that occasion, at which President Roosevelt will be the chief speaker.

NOT PANIC-STRICKEN

Austrians Admit, However, That Troops Were Removed Inland.

VIENNA, November 28.—It is absolutely denied in official quarters that, as reported from Belgrade, a large body of Austrian troops stationed near the frontier were withdrawn into the interior from fear of an attack by Montenegrin forces. Officials also state that there is no Austrian army of 2,000 in or near that district.

Several days ago the baggage of the Austrian troops near Aviovac was removed inland, for fear of an attack by Montenegrins. This appears to be the only ground for the report.

Bulgarian Cabinet Resigns.

SOFIA, November 28.—The Bulgarian Cabinet resigned to-day, but the Emperor has not decided whether or not he will accept the resignation of the ministers. They will remain in office at least for a few days to pass the budget. If a new Cabinet is formed it is probable that M. Danef, the leader of the opposition, will unite with the Nationalists in a coalition ministry.

Big Fund for University.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, November 28.—The Utah Supreme Court yesterday handed down a decision which gives the State University, sixty square miles of land, near the Nevada line. This decision is based on the university clause of the Utah enabling act, and gives the University of Utah a permanent fund of approximately $7,000,000. The right of purchase of the districts involved in this decision is estimated to be 1,250,000 pounds to the square mile.

School Board Wins.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MADISON, WIS., November 28.—The Supreme Court in affirming the decision of the lower court in the case of Jack Dorner and others against School District No. 6, of Brown county, decided to-day that the school board has the right to rent a Roman Catholic school building for public school purposes and employ Catholic nuns to conduct it.

The court found that the school board had acted in good faith and conducted according to the law followed by other public schools in the State.

The plaintiffs asked that the school board be enjoined from renting the building for school purposes, and that all funds heretofore paid to the parish for the rent of the building be refunded.

"Man Is As Old As His Stomach"

This Persian Epigram Is the Real Gauge of a Man's Life.

The Persians were a very sagacious people, noted for their wisdom and their deep thinking of life and the things which make up life.

The above epigram shows the wisdom of their thinking.

When a man's stomach is able to furnish new material to the system as fast or faster than the natural decay of the system requires, then a man lives his fullest and his best.

When through wrong living or disease a man's stomach is unable to furnish the material which it cannot give back in nourishment taken from food, then begins the death of a man, and he decays fast. The stomach is strong, splendidly strong, and can stand an almost amazing amount of abuse and neglect, but when it dies, man dies.

The stomach gives tons upon tons of food rich in vitamins to the system and draws only a few pounds of nourishment for its own use. If, however, the food which it receives is capable of use by the body, then the stomach receives no help from the other organs.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the most perfect digestive qualities known to science, and at the same time the most powerful, and will mix with the poisonous juices of a sick stomach and digest food in spite of the condition.

They will stop gas making and belching. They tone up the nerves of the whole digestive canal, including those of the stomach.

A single ingredient contains strength enough to digest 3,000 times its weight of food.

They have stood the test of time and to-day are more sought after than all their imitations combined. They are used and endorsed by 40,000 physicians. Every druggist sells them, price 50c. It costs nothing to demonstrate their value. Send for name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free.

COMPOSITORS STRIKE

Kingston Printers Want to Be Paid by American Union Scale.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
KINGSTON, JAMAICA, November 28.—To-night, over 90 per cent. of the compositors, all the form imposers and the machine men in every newspaper and job office in Kingston quit work when their employers refused the demand that they should be paid wages on the American union scale. This would mean an increase of 50 per cent. in salaries paid, as well as an eight-hour day. The printers of the newspapers and the heads of the job printing establishments announce they will fight the union on these points. The newspapers say they will not accept a reduced scale until they secure an entirely new force.

ELEPHANT ON RAMPAGE.

Tiny Pig Frightened Giant Pheasant Almost Into Pit.

NEW YORK, November 28.—The antics of a tiny tame pig so frightened a four-ton elephant to-day that the big beast broke away from its keepers at the Hippodrome, crashed through several stout doors, which barred his progress, and started on a wild run toward the East River. Down Forty-third Street to Fifth Avenue and then through crowded streets the beast ran at a speed that amazed the great crowd following and spread consternation ahead of her. No hand was raised to stay her progress as she swept along, dodging street cars and automobiles. A crowd of women and children darted into doorways to give the animal free way and horses reared and plunged and came in terror when they saw the lumbering pachyderm bearing down upon them. Madison Park, Lexington, Third and Second Avenues were passed at top speed.

Between Second and First Avenues, however, the frightened beast stopped short and plunged into the entrance of a tenement house. The passage was so narrow to admit the immense body, but the elephant threw her weight forward, and the sides of the doorway crumpled. Trotting through the long hallway, she forced her way in the same manner, and then started on a wild rampage through back yard fences.

By the time she had swept through half a dozen of these frail obstructions, and the windows of every tenement house in the block were filled with awed spectators. The keeper finally succeeded in getting a rope around one of the elephant's legs, and by making the rope fast to a building he was able to help arrive and the beast was securely tied. Then came the problem of getting her back to the playground.

The beast refused to be hauled, even after she had been calmed and the ropes other elephants were used to lead her. It was necessary to break down two more fences before they could be gotten to the street. When released, she joined by her companions the big beast became as tractable as a kitten. The four animals were driven back to the Hippodrome through streets lined with spectators.

Accepted Rebates.

Baltimore Men Will Not Pay for Coal.

BALTIMORE, Md., November 28.—On a plea of guilty to accepting rebates from the Pennsylvania Railroad on shipments of coal, the Baker Whitey Coal Company, of Baltimore, was fined $700 by Judge Morris, in the United States District Court, for violation of the Interstate Commerce Commerce law. According to the indictment, the company had accepted rebates from the Pennsylvania Railroad of 12 cents a ton on coal.

AUTO ACT STANDS

Prince Edward Island Legislature Prohibits Autos on Public Highways.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
OTTAWA, ONT., November 28.—According to the report of the committee of the privy council, approved by the Governor-General of Canada, the automobile act passed at the last session of the Prince Edward Island Legislature has been declared within the power of the provincial Legislature to act. A copy of the report has been sent to Lieutenant-Governor McKinnon, at Charlottetown.

Petitions Forwarded to Governor-General from the Automobile Association.

Petitions had been forwarded to the governor-general from the automobile association, asking him to disallow the act, on the ground that it was oppressive and unjust and excessive of local legislative authority. The report says that the government is not concerned with any question as to the propriety or expediency of Mr. Bryan's act. Its effect is merely to prohibit the use of motor cars upon the public highways, and the power to do this unquestionably is vested in the Legislature.

BRYAN AND BRUI

Distinguished Private Citizen Came Near Being Roughly Embarrassed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GALVESTON, TEXAS, November 28.—J. Bryan, according to a statement given out by Governor Reyes, was the victim of an encounter with a big bear in the mountains of Chihuahua, and came very near being killed by death. The bear was supposed to be dead. As it attempted to embrace Mr. Bryan he managed by a dexterous motion to slip out of his hunting coat, which he had thrown over his shoulders, and he was able to escape. The bear's claws scraped the body of the hunter, but doing no further damage. The other hunters came to the rescue and killed the bear. The bear's body had been shot several times and rolled over as if dead. Mr. Bryan ran up to him when the bear made a quick movement with his paws to grab the hunter's hat. Notwithstanding the promise made by the members of the Bryan hunting party to forget the incident, the story leaked out.

The American oil man, J. A. Robinson, who is largely interested in Mexico lands, and General Reyes, arranged the hunting expedition in the mountains of Chihuahua. The party included four hunters and four attendants and guides. Three bears, a mountain lion, six or seven deer and an immense number of ducks, quail and other small game were killed. All the big game was presented to Mr. Bryan, who said he would bring back the hides as evidence of his prowess.

BAKER GETS DAMAGES

Pure Food Exponent Had Criticized the Vanilla He Used in Cakes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPRINGFIELD, MASS., November 28.—Professor Louis B. Allen, of the Westfield State Normal School, must pay $1,000 damages to Clarence E. Hubbard, a Westfield baker and restaurateur, for libelous remarks made in his foodstuffs. The suit was tried several months ago in the Superior Court, and Mr. Hubbard was awarded damages. Professor Allen appealed, but in an opinion handed down yesterday is overruled.

Professor Allen is interested in the pure food law, and his class at the Westfield Normal School frequently analyzes liquid and foodstuffs procured in the town. In an article which appeared in two Westfield papers, alleged to have been written by Professor Allen, the vanilla used by Hubbard was criticized, and Hubbard asserted that the article brought him into disrepute and damage.

NEW NOTES STRUCK

Tanners and Shoe Manufacturers Ask for Removal of Old Notes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—New notes were struck by the tanners in the tariff hearing to-day. Tanners and shoe manufacturers are asking for the abolition of the duty on hides, contended that leather and shoes could go forward on the free list also without damage to American industries.

On the contrary, most of them affirmed that free trade in their business would extend their markets and improve the quality of shoes and cheapen them. In making these presentations the beef trust was a particular object of attack, being charged with exploiting a monopoly in hides. It was argued that this was only possible by the aid of the tariff.

NOISELESS GUN.

Inventor Maxim Gives Another Exhibition of Workings of Model.

HARTFORD, CONN., November 28.—At the first public exhibition of the new noiseless gun before the Technology Club at the Healdin Hotel to-night, the guests were suddenly startled when a revolver was fired off in the basement restaurant, but when repeated shots were fired with the noiseless gun no person in the upper corridors was aware of what was transpiring downstairs. Hiram Percy Maxim, the inventor of rifle silencer, has organized a $25,000 New York company, which will soon begin manufacturing the silencing attachment.

The tests to-night were a revelation to those who had seen the model. The sound of the explosion of a large jacketed-service cartridge made less noise than a household whipping a rug, but nevertheless still the jacketed shot with sufficient power to pierce several books and magazines with a soft, ominous swishing sound.

Mr. Maxim explained the mechanism with more or less detail. He also spoke interestingly of his recent visit to the United States Army ordnance experts at the

It tried into the ground out of doors there is little noise, but if fired at an elevation towards a distant target the explosion is considerable, though it would be extremely difficult for an enemy to trace the origin or spot from which fired.

COLONEL SAWYER DEAD

Son of Noted Educator Passes Away While in London.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GARDEN CITY, N. Y., November 28.—A message from London to-day announced the death of Colonel Frederick A. Sawyer, who had been a resident of Garden City for the last twenty-five years, and who for a number of years was secretary of the Clyde Steamship Company.

Colonel Sawyer, who was sixty-eight years old, was a member of an old New England family. His father was a prominent physician and was one of the organizers and later dean of Tufts College. He married Miss Abigail, daughter of Dr. Andrew Boardman, of Manhattan, who, with two children, Chadwick Sawyer and Mrs. Keith Trask, of Philadelphia, survives.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., November 28.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer received a picture post-card to-day from Kadosaka Torita, a twenty-year-old school boy of Tokyo, Japan. The card was issued by the department of communications in honor of the visit of the American battleship fleet, and the reverse side was a picture of the battleship. The Japanese pupil wrote this message on the card:

"Excellent Secretary of the Navy, United States of North America: 'Dear Sir—The battleship fleet of your esteemed country, the USS Oregon, is in Japan. We long for a closer friendship with your noble nation. Prosperity and happiness to your excellency, the Secretary of the Navy.'

Mrs. Field Stricken.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHICAGO, November 28.—Word was received in Chicago to-night that Mrs. Marshall Field is ill in Paris with an attack of rheumatism.

She is reported to be under the care of skilled physicians, who are endeavoring to cure her of her ailment. She is expected to be taken to London, where she hopes to pass some weeks with Mrs. Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field.

It is also rumored that Mrs. Field has decided to live abroad permanently, and that she will make only periodic visits to Chicago.
